WHAT WE OFFER

A series of workshops leading to the creation of a new animation. Young people will choose what elements they want to include in the timeline and create a script. Once the script is complete additional drawings will be made to add to the film. Finally young people will record voice over and learn some editing skills.

We will be working with Emily Bignell, drama facilitator, director and writer, Laura Corderey, artist and Dave Brook film maker.

WHERE

Sessions are held at Gainsborough Heritage Centre

FINAL OUTCOME

The final film will be used in the Heritage Centre as well as on social media as a PR tool to increase visitor numbers.

This project is part of the Future of the Past.
